Support the South Branch Riverfest!

Serious About Having Fun!

May 23, 2020 – Brighton Park, Moorefield, WV

The South Branch Riverfest is a new festival located in the beautiful South Branch Valley in Moorefield, Hardy County, West Virginia.

- Riverfest will be held May 23, 2020 at Brighton Park in Moorefield, WV, a riverside park with lush trees, paved paths, plentiful parking and wonderful views adjacent to the South Branch of the Potomac River.
- Riverfest celebrates outdoor life on the river and features crafts, music, river recreation activities, kids' activities, local foods and more.
- Last year we had an overwhelming community turnout, and we expect to add to that this year with an effective marketing and advertising campaign so we are expecting good participation
- Riverfest is organized by the Hardy County Chamber of Commerce, but promotes all types of activity in the South Branch Valley, which encompasses Grant, Hardy and Hampshire counties of the beautiful Potomac Highlands of West Virginia.
- Riverfest has something for everyone: hands on activities for children and adults, food, music, shopping, and most of all, an amazing atmosphere.

Please join us in supporting this one of a kind festival that builds community, businesses and visitor participation!
